"Three hundred and sixty-five and a fourth," promptly answered Willie.

"Why," replied Willie, "that's the Fourth of July."—Ram's Horn.

Officers of the W. M. S. G. S.

WE take pleasure in presenting here-with the faces of the faithful women to whom has been committed the direction of the woman's work in the Reformed Church. Having served so acceptably during the triennium which closed last May, they were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing three years.

Some idea of the work which is being accomplished by the women of the church may be gathered from the following summary in the treasurer's report as rendered at the late triennial meeting. The report covers a period of three years.

For Girls' School.....	$ 8,247 71
For Foreign Missions.....	1,417 81
For Lady Teacher's Outfit.....	115 33
For Home Missions.....	7,466 56
For Church Extension.....	684 70

For Woman's Journal.....	361 24
For Contingent Fund.....	173 50
For Mission Band Helper.....	78 00
For Butler Orphan's Home.....	20 00
	$18,564 85

These figures represent much earnest toil in behalf of the missionary work of the church; the women are doing their part nobly. For the ensuing three years they have assumed the support of the Girls' School at Sendai, Japan, which will require $5,600 annually; and in addition they have pledged $4,000 for the work of Home Missions. The secret of their success lies in the first resolution adopted at their late meeting:—

Resolved, That as a body of women we reconsecrate our energies and our talents to the service of our Divine Lord, and that we cultivate the spirit of self-sacrifice and self-denial, thereby enabling us to offer such gifts as shall help speedily to establish His kingdom on the earth.

"Was my sermon long this morning?" asked a preacher who had been taken to task for running over time, and who had carefully kept within a half hour.

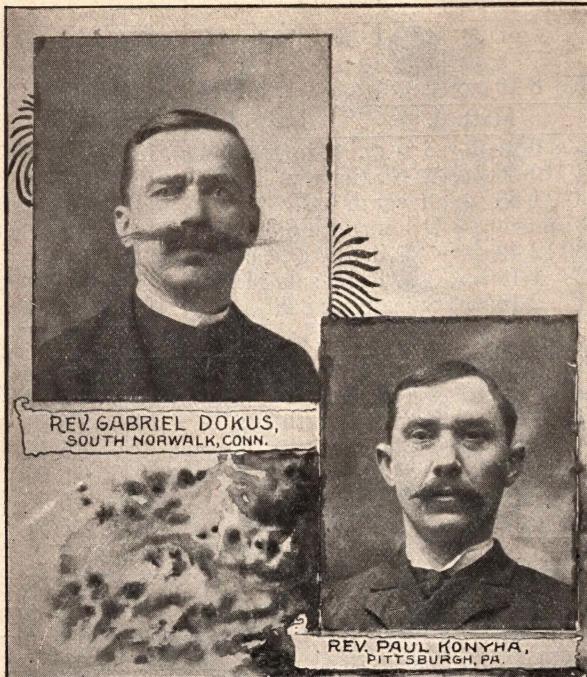

"No, dear doctor," was the reply of the parishioner. "It wasn't long; it only seemed so."—Boston Watchman.

Teacher—Johnny, can you tell me what is meant by "steward?"

Johnny—A steward is a man that doesn't mind his own business.

Teacher—Where did you get that idea?

Johnny—Well, I looked it up in the dictionary, and it said: "A man who attends to the affairs of others."

Our Hungarian Work.

DO department of the work of Home Missions is more important than the Hungarian. None has developed more rapidly or more hopefully. Eleven years ago the first Hungarian Reformed Church in America was organized at Mt. Carmel, Pa. Since then organizations have been formed in Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Trenton, Bridgeport, New York, Chicago, South Norwalk, and other Hungarian centers.

The pastors of these churches have been sent over from Europe, and have proven themselves men of eminent scholarship and piety. They have come to labor among a people who are too poor to erect church buildings and meet the current expenses of an organization alone, but they are willing to give what they can and have appealed to us for help. They come from a Reformed land. They love the church of their fathers—our church. What a missionary opportunity for us in this country! It is certainly a great credit to the Reformed Church that she has taken up this work so vigorously in behalf of her brethren from Hungary. In their home-land there are more than 2,100 church edifices and over 2,000,000 members of the Reformed Church. Each congregation has a parochial school and parsonage. The Reformed Church of Hungary maintains five Theological Seminaries besides numerous colleges and high schools.

Norman McLeod was once preaching in a Scotch district, where the reading of a sermon was regarded as the greatest fault of which a minister could be guilty. When the congregation dispersed, an old woman, overflowing with enthusiasm, addressed her neighbor: "Did ye ever hear anything sae gran'? Was na' that a sermon?" "Oh, ay!" replied her friend, sulkily; "but he read it." "Read it?" said the other, with indignant emphasis; "I wad no hae cared if he had whustled it!"

REV. C. V. MOLNAR, CHICAGO, ILL.

The Work Among the Bohemians.

THE Reformed Church has received a special call to minister in spiritual things to another foreign people in our beloved country namely, the Bohemians who belong to our own household of faith in two of our larger cities. In July, 1896, a mission among these people was opened in Chicago, Ill. Rev. Charles V. Molnar, a native Bohemian, was commissioned. Chicago teems with an immense population of this nationality, many of whom are adherents of the Reformed Church. The mission, as yet, owns no church, but worships in a store building for which the Board pays the larger portion of the rental. But a church is greatly needed. The outlook for gathering in souls is very promising.

The other appeal came to the Board from the city of Cleveland, Ohio, which numbers among its population 45,000 Bohemians. The Erie Classis, during the past year, took the initiative in establishing a mission among these people and placed it in charge of the Rev. Anthony Korbel, a native Bohemian. This congregation, of nearly fifty members, worships in the Sixth (German) Reformed Church. A lot has been bought, and they will build at an early day. At our last quarterly meeting the mission was enrolled and Rev. Korbel was commissioned.

To provide for the missions now under the care of the Board, and for missions to be added from year to year, the General Synod at Tiffin pledged the church for the following funds:

English Missions.....	$50,000
Hungarian and Bohemian Missions.....	8,000
German City Work.....	6,000
Harbor Mission.....	1,150

Total.....$65,150

This sum is to be given annually for three years.

Within the next three years a number of our large cities West and South must be entered and the work very largely expanded.

The three years past $136,000 were expended for missions direct. The next three years will require a much larger sum.

Our church building work is rapidly enlarging. Nearly $52,000 was expended during the three years past. The fund accumulated within the last ten years amounts to at least $200,000.

The Board now has ninety-six missions under its care and arrangements have been made by which three additional ones will be added in a month or two, so that there will be at least ninety-nine missions to be provided for the year from October 1, 1899 to October 1, 1900.

One forward movement was made by the General Synod in the creation of the office of "Financial Secretary." This place was filled by the Board by the election of Rev. C. E. Creitz, of Huntingdon, Pa., who is now engaged in the labors of his office.

The church should devise and carry out liberal things for the Home Mission work. Upon it will depend largely the future history in this country.

The founder of one of our agricultural colleges, who was more noted for having the interest of the public at heart than for aptness of expression in speech, was once called to be chairman of a meeting convened to consider the necessity of procuring ground for a new cemetery. "Gentlemen," said he, "I suppose you all know that there has got to be a new cemetery, and now we are anxious to know how many of you are ready to go into it!"—Youth's Companion.

Mission Among the Indians.

THE above picture will no doubt be a pleasant surprise to many members of the Reformed Church; for it is not generally known that we have an interesting and successful mission among the Indians of the Northwest. The work has been inaugurated and carried forward by our German brethren—Rev. J. Stucki is the missionary, and his earnest labors are among the Winnebagoes near Black River Falls, Wis. He is ably assisted by Mr. Stacy, a converted young Indian. Lately a house has been erected for the assistant. It was intended to make the house 18x26 feet, but the modest assistant thought that would be too large, and therefore the size of 16x24 feet was adopted. The total cost of the erection of the building was $155. From this it appears that it is by no means a palatial residence.

The labors of the missionary are manifold. He preaches, teaches in school and Sunday-school, conducts a Bible class, makes pastoral visits, translates portions of the Bible into the Winnebago language, conducts a small farm, etc. He is very much isolated from his brethren, but labors with great self-denial and patience. A few years ago his wife died, which increased his trials very much.

The above is a picture of the missionary and some of the Indians beside a log hut belonging to the Indian family. Only a few of the Indians have houses; most of them live in tents or tepees.

Flowers.

In all places, then, and in all seasons,
 Flowers expand their light and soul like wings,
 Teaching us, by most persuasive reasons,
 How akin they are to human things.
 And with childlike, credulous affection
 We behold their tender buds expand;
 Emblems of our own great resurrection—
 Emblems of the bright and better land.

—Longfellow.

"I don't know that I need any work done about the house. What can you do, my good fellow?" "Sir, in my day I've been a carpenter, a barber, and a school teacher. I can shingle your house, your hair, or your boy."

A wealthy bank officer, on being appealed to for aid by a needy Irishman, answered petulantly, "No, no; I can't help you. I have fifty just such applications as yours every day." "Shure, and ye might have a hundred without costing ye much, if nobody gets more than I do," was the witty response.

Rev. Chas. E. Creitz.

THE new Financial Secretary of the Board of Home Missions was born on the 24th of October, 1865, at Lynnport, Lehigh county, Pa., of Reformed parents, who reared him in the faith of our fathers. At the age of sixteen, he was confirmed as a member of the Reformed Church. In the same year he became a teacher in the public schools and followed this profession for four years. During this time he prepared for college by attending select schools during the summer, and taking private lessons in Latin and Greek from his pastor, Rev. J. N. Bachman, during the winter. In the fall of 1886, he entered the sophomore class in Franklin and Marshall College, and graduated as valedictorian in 1889. In the fall of the same year he entered the Theological Seminary at Lancaster from which he graduated in 1892. During his first two years in the seminary he also taught in the Franklin and Marshall Academy a part of the time.

He was licensed by Lehigh Classis shortly after graduation and accepted a call to the Weissport charge in East Pennsylvania Classis. Here he labored two years and seven months during which time the Reformed congregation purchased the Lutheran interest in the church property, and then proceeded to remodel the entire building. At the beginning of his pastorate there the Reformed and Lutherans worshiped in the same building and the Reformed congregation received $100 sustentation from East Pennsylvania Classis. When he left the Reformed owned their own church property and the congregation declared itself self-supporting.

In the spring of 1895, he accepted a call from the Huntingdon charge. During his pastorate here, a new church has been built at a cost of over $12,000 which is practically paid for, and the congregation has made that steady progress which was begun already under preceding pastorates. Obedient to the call of the church, Bro. Creitz has undertaken his new work as Financial Secretary. He will be faithful and diligent, but cannot hope to succeed without the hearty co-operation of the whole church. The General Synod authorized the appointment of a Financial Secretary and the Board of Missions elected Bro. Creitz, but the increase of funds and the success of the project lies largely with the pastors and congregations. The people must give their united support. We believe they will.

Ten Years in North Carolina.

The last ten years have been active ones with the Reformed Church in North Carolina. The membership of the church has increased about 37 per cent during that time. There were fifteen ordained ministers with two licentiates. Now we have twenty-two ministers with one licentiate. Few of the young men were then studying for the ministry; this year there will be five or more at the school of theology. It was necessary then to license our young men before the course in theology had been completed; the necessity does not exist today.

Thirty-two congregations were reported then; now forty-three are enrolled. Some nine or ten new churches have been built during that time.

An Englishman and an Irishman met one day, and the former, wishing to have some fun with Pat, asked him if he was good at measurement.

"I am that," said Pat.

"Then could you tell me how many shirts I could get out of a yard?"

"Well," said Pat, "that depends on whose yard you get into."

Grace Reformed Church, Detroit, Mich.
(Mission.)

ACCORDING to the city directory for 1899, Detroit has a population of 355,000 which is an increase of 8,000 over last year. Here the Reformed Church, many years ago, established a German congregation. Later a German mission was taken up and finally an English mission has also been planted. While the attention of our Board of Home Missions had been called to Detroit as an important field of labor some years before, yet it was not able, because of the lack of funds, to take favorable action towards planting a mission there until in 1896. That year the Rev. C. W. Brugh was called to organize the mission. He arrived on the field June 5th and found a small union Sunday-school which was being carried forward under many discouragements. This school welcomed him as its pastor and with it he began work, having about thirty present on the first Sunday. In July a free grant of literature was secured from our Sunday-school Board. This was a great help, and the school has ever since used the Reformed literature.

The Junior Christian Endeavor organized with eight members in July of the first year now enrolls thirty members.

The Dorcas Society has done many kind favors for the needy and has made itself very useful in the church work.

A congregation was organized September 27, 1896, with nine members, five women, two men and two boys. The two men were chosen as officers; one an elder and the other a deacon, who with the missionary constituted the first consistory.

When the mission was a little more than a year old the Board authorized its relocation and the erection of a chapel. Accordingly the substantial brick chapel as shown in the cut, with a seating capacity of 400 was built in the summer of 1898 and dedicated in November of that year. The lot is 100x140 feet and gives room for a parsonage and auditorium to be erected according to future need. The property is valued at $6,800. The mission is located where it may do much good. No other denomination is better suited to the conditions peculiar to this section of the city.

Maple Avenue Reformed Church, St. Louis, Mo.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL organized November 14, 1897. Lot purchased December 31, 1898. Corner-stone laid May 22, 1899. Chapel completed September, 1899.

Location. The chapel is located on the north-east corner of Maple and Clarendon Aves., in the west, new and rapidly growing residence portion of the city. The considerations determining this location were: (1) Where do our Reformed members live? (2) Where is a community inadequately supplied with Christian privileges, and (3) Where is a location accessible from most parts of the city? The answer to these questions were the three points determining the center of our circle of labor.

Building. The chapel built of red stock (pressed) brick in the Romanesque type of architecture consists of one main room (36x40 ft.) an adjoining room (20x22) separated by rolling partition and a vestibule from which there is an entrance to each room and stairway to the basement. Being seated with chairs it has equal conveniences for Sunday-school and church services. The seating capacity is about 300.

Cost. The lot was purchased by the Home Mission Board at the cost of $3,015. The cost of building, including furnishings, was $6,000. Over one-half of this amount has been contributed by the membership of the church at large, while the members and friends in the city have added to this amount.

Plan. In this undertaking we have made a departure from the usual method in that we have erected the chapel before fully effecting the organization of the congregation. In this we have avoided the cumulative discouragement of two or three years' labor in a hall on the second or third floor.

Prospect. In this city of 600,000 inhabitants with less than one church to every 2,000 souls (one saloon to every 300) the need of more Christian privileges is apparent. With 40 per cent of its people of German birth it presents a field in which the Reformed Church has a duty as well as opportunity. Location, need and present indications promise in this mission a full realization of the expectations of the church.

Sunday-school Missionary Work.

The triennial report of the Sunday-school Board issued last May says of the missionary department: "The work is two-fold. (1) Missionary, comprehending the organization and development of Sunday-schools in new and unoccupied fields, and (2) Educational, seeking to increase the efficiency of existing schools. It is supported by the offerings of churches and schools given mainly on Children's Day, and by the transfer of a proportion of the profits of the business department. The total receipts of the missionary fund (not including $1700 repaid by the Business Department, and embodied twice in the treasurer's report) the last three years were $11,175.93 compared with $8,751.77 the preceding three years. Of this amount $8,672.76 were received as offerings, and the balance from sales of Children's Day Services and miscellaneous sources. The number of missionaries employed was 12. Of this number nine were theological students.

At the close of the forenoon session of a ministerial conference, in announcing the opening subject for the afternoon, the presiding officer said: "Elder H. will present a paper on 'The Devil.'" Then he added earnestly, "Please be prompt in attendance, for Brother H. has a carefully prepared paper, and is full of his subject." And the Homiletic Review says that it was some minutes before the presiding officer understood the laughter which followed his remark.

First Church (Mission) Denver, Col.

OUR English Mission at Denver, of which Rev. Henry Tesnow is pastor, is the only Reformed Church in the State of Colorado. Prior to the present congregation there existed a temporary organization which lasted about nine months. During this early period, a nucleus for the building of a congregation was gathered. The first business session was held May 7, 1896. The first service for worship was held on the 24th of the same month. So rapid was the growth of the new organization, that a permanent congregation was organized on January 31, 1897, at which time there were received twenty-eight members by letter and fourteen by reprofession of faith, making a total of forty-two. The Sunday-school was organized on September 6, 1896, and in the following December the first prayer-meeting service was held. Three months later the Ladies' Aid Society was organized and has rendered most efficient service. The new building project took tangible form in May, 1898, when the mission was visited by Rev. A. S. Dechant, Superintendent of Western Missions. The struggling mission pledged $1,000 toward a church home, and appealed to the Board for additional help, the result of which was the purchase in the following August of the beautiful lot on the corner of 17th Avenue and Emerson St. The Board of Trustees of the congregation does not consider it wise to go into debt, and therefore only the rear portion of the church is being built at present. The present building contracts amount to $4,000. To finish the chapel will cost $6,000, and the furnishing, something additional. The cornerstone was laid Sunday afternoon, July 9, 1899, since which time the building has been going forward rapidly.

During the brief history of this mission, ninety-three members have been received, twelve of whom have received letters of dismissal chiefly on account of removal from the city; two have died, and one name has been erased, leaving a membership at the time of laying the cornerstone, of seventy-eight. Having lived and grown thus while worshiping in a store-room there is every reason to expect this enterprising congregation to flourish and develop into great strength and usefulness when the new chapel is completed. Thus gradually we are entering the vast centers of population. More efficient work could be done if our gifts to the work of Home Missions, and especially the Church Building Funds, would be increased. To what nobler cause can any one devote his offerings when living, where will they accomplish more good after he has gone than in the vast Home Mission field?

At a Children's Day gathering a two-year-old tot made his first visit to the sanctuary. After dropping his first penny in the basket and waiting a reasonable length of time, as he supposed, for the usher to come back, he cried out lustily, "Where's my pretzel? Mamma, the man didn't bring me any pretzel." Alas! too many older people always expect some immediate tangible return for their contribution.

Christ Reformed Church, Baltimore, Md.

IN the city of Baltimore, twenty years ago, there were three English Reformed congregations. Because of this fact many members removing to remote sections of the city, or coming from the country to the city, were lost to the church. Today there are nine English Reformed congregations in Baltimore, so located in the center, north, south, east and west, as to enable the Reformed Church to provide more adequately for its membership, and also to comply with the Savior's great commission to make disciples of all nations. Of these organizations Christ Reformed congregation is one. It is located on the corner of Druid Hill and North Avenues, which is in a rapidly growing residence section of the city. This section will, in the judgment of some experienced people, in thirty years, be the center of the city.

The congregation was organized August 2, 1889, and from that date to the close of the tenth year of its history 271 names were enrolled in its communicant membership. The Sunday-school which has been an important factor in the success of this mission was organized in a hall in 1887. Its membership including primary, intermediate, senior, and home departments, numbers 380.

The first missionary was Rev. A. M. Schmidt, Lancaster, Pa., whose pastorate closed in June, 1892. The second missionary is Rev. W. I. Stewart who after having served self-supporting congregations in country and town, was commissioned October 1, 1892, to take charge of this well organized mission. Before the congregation was organized a one story frame chapel was erected. This building was used until it needed expensive repairs when it was decided to remove it and to erect a two-story stone edifice. This important work was commenced in June, 1898, and completed in December of the same year. This attractive improvement with the lot cost $17,500. In ten years the congregation composed of poor people contributed $1,600.00 to benevolent objects outside of its own organization, and $15,000.00 to its own development.

The Church Paper.

Here is what that eminent servant of Christ, Rev. Herrick Johnson, D. D., thinks of the church paper which so many professing Christians never read. He says: "I believe in the religious paper. It is good to take. It jostles the people out of ruts. It pricks the side of good intent. It puts parishes in touch with each other, and with the wide world of Christianity, activity, and life. It slips many a suggestion into a sermon, and many a thought into a heart. It lets fly a bow 'at a venture, but the shots tell. It furnishes wholesome reading for the Sabbath. What with 'Sunday-school Helps,' 'Prayer-meeting Expositions,' 'Religious Notes,' 'Flats and Sharps,' and editorials, it is an unguent, a pungent, a stimulus and inspiration, a help over many a hard place; a comfort to saints, and a rebuke to sinners."

Let us make America Christian, not that America may be great, but that she may represent among the nations the kingdom of God.—Dr. A. H. Bradford.

Some people are always finding fault with nature for putting the thorns on roses; I always thank her for having put roses on thorns.—Alphonse Kerr.

Judge McCorkle, the Christian Lawyer.

MATTHEW LOCK McCORKLE was born in Catawba county, N. C., November 17, 1817, died in Newton, N. C., July 11, 1899, aged 81 years, 7 months, 24 days.

Elder McCorkle was descended from a noble line of Scotch Irish ancestors, the Locks, Browns, Works, Abernethy's and Forneys. From these he inherited the principles that led to the declaration of our independence, and the establishing of the republic. His grandfather Francis McCorkle fought gallantly at the battle of Ramsour's Mill. His boyhood was fired by stories of Kings Mountain, Cowan's Ford and the Mecklenberg Declaration. His home was in the midst of these scenes. His aged neighbors and relatives were prominent actors in these events. In his youth, the facilities for learning were of the most meager kind, and few if any of his comrades dreamed of a liberal education, but he by dint of perseverance and self-denial was able to enter the preparatory department Davidson College in 1838, and to graduate from it in 1843, though compelled to teach a whole year in the meantime to replenish his scanty means.

In 1846, he obtained license to practice law, and located in Newton, established as the capitol of the new county of Catawba, formed only two years before. Here he joined the Reformed Church under Rev. J. H. Crawford, whom he always held in the highest esteem. In his newly organized congregation he and two estimable Christian ladies organized the first Sabbath school of the town. In this school he labored as teacher and superintendent, with ceaseless zeal to the end of his useful life. Nothing but absolute necessity ever kept him from his place in the school or the church. For months together while the charge was vacant, he held the regular weekly services. The greater part of his Christian life he was an elder in the congregation and its main stay. Catawba College originated in his mind. It was his suggestion that led to its organization. He cherished it through all these years with a father's affection. He never tired in pleading, working or giving for its support. Here he educated all his children. His legal counsel was freely given. His voice was more frequently and more earnestly raised in its behalf than that of any other man. He has been the president of its Board of Trustees for many years. Almost his last public act was to preside at its late meeting. His death is a heavy stroke to the institution, and at this critical period in its history, all the wisdom, energy and devotion of the surviving members of its Board of Trustees are demanded to tide it over the breakers in its way.

REV. J. S. STAHR, PH. D., D. D.

The College and Seminary at Lancaster, Pa.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN laid the cornerstone of old Franklin College at Lancaster, Pa., in 1787. For sixty-five years it was an interdenominational school. In 1852 Franklin College passed into the hands of the Reformed Church. Marshall College was established at Mercersburg, Pa., in 1836 and grew in influence as a right arm to the Theological Seminary then located there. In 1852 Marshall College was removed to Lancaster, Pa., and with Franklin College, was incorporated as Franklin and Marshall College.

The first Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in the United States was opened at Carlisle, Pa., in 1825. In 1829 it was removed to York; in 1837 to Mercersburg and in 1871 to its present home, Lancaster, Pa. At first the seminary was under the supervision of the Board of Home Missions, but in 1831 it was placed under the care of a Board of Trustees and a Board of Visitors. Both of these Boards are elected by the three Eastern Synods which own and control this Theological Seminary.

The college, like the seminary, stands under the authority of the Eastern, the Potomac, and the Pittsburg Synods. The Franklin and Marshall Academy is a well equipped preparatory school whose building occupies the northern end of the college campus. These three institutions have a combined campus of about thirty acres and stand on the highest elevation within—and at the western end of the city limits. The buildings, not including the professors houses, are nine in number. Among them are the main Recitation Hall (see cut), the Daniel Scholl Observatory, erected in 1884, the Gymnasium and the De Peyster Library erected in 1898. A large science building will be built this year at a cost of about $40,000. The college has now an endowment fund of nearly $200,000. The college furnishes a full four years' classical course with the degree of A. B. and a special classical; also a science course leading to the Ph. B. degree. A large athletic field for outdoor sports and for military drill is maintained. During the year 1898-1899, there were 332 students (all young men) enrolled in these three institutions. The attendance has increased more than 100 per cent in the past ten years.

How the Twentieth Century Movement may be made Successful.

As the design of this movement is purely the glory of Christ and the salvation of souls, in order that it may succeed the church herself must be quickened and revived by the fresh presence and manifested power of the Holy Spirit. As this blessing comes only in answer to prayer, the first great means to be used in the accomplishment of the purpose is the union of all Sunday-school workers in daily supplication for larger measures of the Holy Spirit.

Success in this enterprise is impossible without the intelligent and heartfelt sympathy and co-operation of the pastors, consistories, superintendents, officers, teachers, and scholars of our Reformed Sunday-schools. The movement must be taken up through the persuasion and power of the Holy Spirit by our workers in general. There are "giant" difficulties in the way, and much hard work lies between this and the accomplishment of our great purpose, but with the Spirit of God and with a Spirit-filled church, we can say with Caleb, "Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." —Gen. Secy., Rev. R. W. Miller.

HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS, TIFFIN, OHIO.

Heidelberg University.

EARLY in the year 1850 it was proposed to establish a college for the Reformed Church in the West. A special meeting of the Synod of Ohio was held in Tarlton to consider proposals for a location. After due deliberation, the offer from Tarlton of ten acres of land valued at $800, and subscriptions to the amount of $7,200, was accepted. Preliminary steps were taken toward the erection of the necessary buildings and Rev. S. S. Rickly was elected president pro tem.

The location selected for the new college did not seem to satisfy the church, for at the annual meeting of the synod held in Navarre five months later, or September 26, 1850, it was decided to accept a proposal from Tiffin and change the location of the institution to that growing county seat. The college was formally opened on the 18th of November, 1850, in the city of Tiffin with seven students.

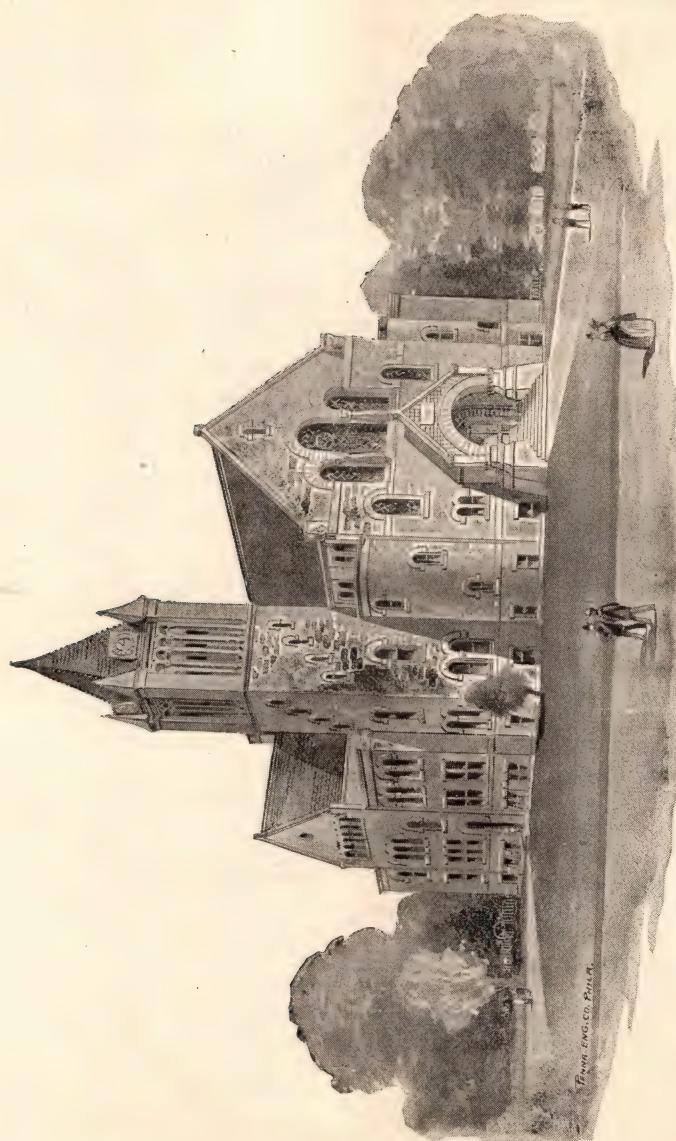

At this time no building, no campus, even, belonged to the institution, but several rooms were rented on the third floor of a building or block in the central part of the city. In the month of December of this year a meeting of the synod was held to select a site for a building. A small tract was chosen just east of the city limits. At that early day but few houses were built upon what is now the most beautiful part of the city, known as College Hill. The first Board of Trustees consisted of the following gentlemen: R. W. Shawhan, H. Shaull, Lewis Baltzell, William H. Gibson, G. W. Williard, William Barrick, Henry St. John, Joel W. Wilson, Robert Crum, Frederick Wahl, Dennis C. Stoner, J. H. Good, E. V. Gerhart, Jesse Steiner, Jacob Kroh, S. B. Leiter, D. Kemmerer and H. K. Baines. This Board held its first session on October 23, 1850. The following constitute a list of the members of the Faculty and their departments, as printed in the first catalogue: Rev. E. V. Gerhart, A. M., President and Professor of Intellectual and Moral Philosophy and Evidences of Christianity; Rev. J. H. Good, A. M., Professor of Mathematics and Mechanical Philosophy; Rev. S. S. Rickly, A. M., Professor of Theory and Practice of Teaching. Rev. R. Good, A. M., Rector of Preparatory Department; Mrs. A. M. Lee, Principal of Female Department. The courses of study which were offered, as described in the first catalogue, were: Classical, Scientific, Normal, Ladies', Farmers' and Academic.

The first building, which is now used as the gentlemen's dormitory, was erected in 1853. At that time this building was used for recitations as well as dormitory purposes. The president's house was erected in 1868; the ladies' boarding hall in 1873; the new university hall in 1886, and the museum and gymnasium hall in 1894. This demonstrates the healthy and normal growth in the way of buildings. The endowment fund was raised largely in the same way, not by any very large sums of money, but by small contributions from the sacrificing laity of the Reformed Church in the State of Ohio. The Rev. G. W. Williard, D. D., and the sainted Henry Leonard, have the credit of securing the large amount of money which now supports the institution. Thus the work has grown from an humble origin until the buildings, equipments and endowment amount to nearly $250,000. In 1890 the articles of incorporation of "Heidelberg College" were amended, enlarging the purpose and scope of the school and changing its name to "Heidelberg University." The enlarged sphere of the University has required additional instructors from time to time, and the following now constitute the Faculty: Rev. L. H. Kefauver, D. D., Acting Chancellor; Rev. J. A. Peters, D. D., President of Literary Department, Philosophy and Evidences of Christianity; Rev. Reuben Good, A. M. (Emeritus), Natural Sciences; C. Hornung, A. M., Mathematics; C. M. Lowe, Ph.D., Latin; M. E. Kleckner, A. M., Geology and Biology; T. H. Sonnedecker, A. M., Greek; Rev. William Dreher, A. M., German and French; A. D. Keller, A. M., English and Economics; A. W. Ricksecker, A. B., Principal of Academy; H. H. Shirer, A. B., Principal Normal; E. C. Zartman, B. M., Principal of Conservatory of Music; Miss Inez I. Crampton, Art Department; Miss Vanda E. Kerst, Principal of the Department of Oratory; C. C. Kennison, Principal Commercial Department; J. E. Schmidlin, Director of Gymnasium; Burton Stoner, Librarian.

A man really begins to learn when he learns that he cannot learn everything.

BOMBERGER MEMORIAL HALL, URSINUS COLLEGE,
COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa.

URSINUS COLLEGE was founded in 1869 and was opened for instruction September, 1870. It owes its origin to the theological condition of the Reformed Church at the time of its inception. The Rev. J. H. A. Bomberger, D. D., LL. D., was its first president and continued in office until the time of his death in August, 1890. Associated with him from the beginning was the Rev. Henry W. Super, D. D., LL. D., who as vice president and as president gave twenty-four years of service to the institution. These two men, together with Prof. Samuel Vernon Ruby, Esq., Ph. D., who died in 1896, and Prof. J. Shelly Weinberger, LL. D., who is the sole survivor of the original Faculty, gave character to the institution and moulded its life during the first two decades of its existence. Indeed, they impressed upon it a stamp of liberality, progressiveness, and heroism which promises to dominate its life for years to come.

Another man who made himself felt in the work of the college during this period was John Van Haagen, D. D., Professor of German and Hebrew from 1870 to 1885, now a member of the Faculty of the Mission House at Franklin, Wisconsin. During the transition period which followed the death of Dr. Bomberger the college received valuable assistance from the Rev. G. W. Williard, D. D., LL. D., who served as its acting president during the year 1891-92.

In accord with the modern spirit which has pervaded the institution from its beginning, the present administration of the college has brought its work into acknowledged advanced lines of organization and activity. Five specialized courses of study are offered: the Classical; the Mathematical-Physical, especially adapted to teachers; the Chemical-Biological, or Preparatory Medical; the Historical-Political, in preparation for the legal profession; and the Modern Language course for ladies. Full laboratory courses are given in Chemistry, Physics, and Biology, and an elementary course in Psychology. Only University trained men are elected to professorships. At the present time the Faculty represents training at Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Johns Hopkins, and Pennsylvania Universities in this country, the University of Leipsic, and ten American colleges. The location of the institution near Philadelphia has proved of special value to the students and advantageous to the members of the Faculty. The high standard set for the college may be inferred from the fact that Ursinus is the only college in Pennsylvania having a requirement in science for admission.

The greatest blessing that has come to Ursinus College was the endowment fund of $150,000 bestowed upon it by Robert Patterson, of Philadelphia, and the Bomberger Memorial Hall, the erection of which was made possible by Mr. Patterson's liberality. The productive endowment of the college is $185,000 which needs to be doubled to meet the demands of the present advanced liberal scope of work carried forward by the college.

As the founding of Ursinus College has proved itself epoch-making in the history of the Reformed Church, so a step in advance was taken a year ago by the institution that promises to be as far-reaching in its effect as the founding of the college. To keep its students in touch with the highest development of Christian life and activity, found only in a large city, the School of Theology conducted by the college has been removed to Philadelphia, in close proximity to the University of Pennsylvania.

The Theological Department of the college was organized in 1872. The instruction was conducted for a number of years by Drs. Bomberger, Super, and Van Haagen. One hundred and forty men have been added to the roll of ministers of the church by this institution. The present Dean of the Ursinus School of Theology, which is located at 3252 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, is the Rev. James I. Good, D. D., President of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church, and author of the most valuable series of denominational historical books produced by the church. Associated with him in the work of instruction are the Rev. J. H. Sechler, D. D., Prof. Wm. J. Hinke, A. M., B. D., Rev. Philip Vollmer, Ph. D., and the Rev. Henry T. Spangler, D. D., President of the college. The present Dean of the college is Edmund Morris Hyde, Ph. D., L. H. D., an educator of twenty years' experience, the last ten of which were spent at Lehigh University, Pa. The efficient academy conducted by the college is under the immediate supervision of the Dean of the college.

The Mission House.

TN the early fifties while Wisconsin and the great Northwest was being settled by immigrants from Germany and other countries, there was a great and pressing need for preachers of the gospel among Reformed immigrants, which the eastern part of our church could not supply in sufficient numbers, so that calls for assistance were without avail. The few ministers sent to Wisconsin, Muehlmeier, Bossard, Winter and others, then constituting the Sheboygan Classis, took counsel with the Lord in prayer and concluded to found a German school for the education of young men for the ministry. Instructions were first given in private houses, some land was presented and more purchased, the first building was erected in 1862, and from such small beginnings this institution has grown until from five to fifteen young men, after completing a course in the Academy, the college, and the seminary, are sent forth every year to preach the gospel to our German and Swiss brethren in city and country all over the land. Mission House men are stationed in New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and other cities, and in the North Atlantic, Central, Northwestern and Western States, from ocean to ocean. The Mission House owns 250 acres of land, has five school buildings, five dwelling houses, but only about $10,000 endowment fund. It is supported chiefly by collections taken up once or twice a year in the congregations belonging to the three German Synods of our church, which supervise the school, elect the members of the Boards and the theological professors, and from year to year contribute more liberally toward the support and the improvement of this useful institution. The present status and organization of this school can best be learned from the catalogue which will be sent to anyone on application to Dr. H. A. Muehlmeier, Franklin, Wis.

The Foreign Mission Board.

No subject considered at the late meeting of the General Synod received more earnest attention than the work of Foreign Missions. The Reformed Church is beginning to appreciate her opportunity and will soon take her rightful place among the denominations in the foreign field. In addition to sending four new missionaries to Japan the General Synod instructed the Board to plant a new mission in China as soon as possible. The princely offer of the Columbian congregation to give $800 a year for seven years opened the door into China for the Reformed Church. Many other congregations ought to do likewise. The province of Hunan in the Empire of China has been selected as the place in which to plant the new mission and soon two missionaries will be commissioned.

The former officers of the Board were re-elected for the ensuing three years: President, Rev. James I. Good, D. D.; Vice President, Rev. John H. Prugh, D. D.; Secretary, Rev. S. N. Callender, D. D.; Treasurer, Jos. L. Lemberger, Ph. M.

The nightingale has become proverbial for the beauty of its song; both poets and naturalists have been alike eloquent in its praise. Its music is the standard of perfection, and to be told we sing like a nightingale is to get the highest praise for our vocal efforts. By general consent it is crowned the chief of nature's musicians. When listening to the nightingale, Isaac Walton said: "Lord, what music hast thou prepared thy saints in heaven, when thou affordest bad men such music upon earth?" We heartily indorse the sentiment, and rejoice in the prospect of sweeter songs above.

Catawba College, Newton, North Carolina.

THE history of the Reformed Church in North Carolina since the founding of Catawba College at Newton is closely connected with that institution. To it our church largely owes her existence in that state. During many years of discouragement this school has been the center around which the scattered forces of the church have rallied. Catawba College was chartered by the General Assembly of the state in 1853, but had been regularly opened for the admission of students in the autumn of 1851. A movement to secure an endowment of $60,000 met with remarkable success, nearly $50,000 of that sum having been subscribed. But in the ruin of the civil war the entire endowment was lost and the college was left helpless, and the young men who had crowded her halls were called to take the knapsack and the musket and join the army. After the war the true and tried friends of the college were unable to renew the endowment, and the college was left helpless. But her influence as a high school continued and hundreds of young men and women received here preparation for the junior class in the best colleges and for the various avocations of life. In 1885 the original charter was resumed and a regular curriculum adopted. The first class was graduated in 1889. It consisted of three young men, two of whom are now ministers in the classis of North Carolina, and the third is a prominent physician. Other classes have followed regularly since the first year.

The first president of the college was Rev. C. H. Albert. On his retiring, Prof. H. H. Smith, his assistant, was elected to that office. Prof. Smith occupied the building known as the "Professor's House" (since converted into the Ladies' Boarding Hall). Hon. Hoke Smith of Georgia, is a son of his, and was born while Prof. Smith was the president of the college. Rev. A. S. Vaughn was elected president in 1860, but he remained with the institution only a short time. The endowment having been lost, a faculty could not be supported. Soon after the war, Rev. J. C. Clapp and Maj. S. M. Finger, both of whom had received largely their education in Catawba College before the war but who had received their degrees from New England institutions, took charge of the buildings and for nine years conducted a classical school of high grade. Maj. Finger retired in 1874, and Rev. J. A. Foil became associated with Prof. Clapp in conducting the school. Profs Clapp and Foil, with competent assistants, continued this blessed educational work until 1885, when the trustees elected a college faculty with Rev. J. C. Clapp, D. D., as president.

The friends of Catawba College are hopeful for the future. A strong effort is being made to secure an endowment fund which it is felt is an absolute necessity. The classis of North Carolina and the Alumni Association of the college have already secured $14,000, and the Synod of the Potomac has pledged an addition of $17,000 to that amount, on which an annual interest of $1,000 is paid until the principal is raised. A valuable donation of property worth $8,000 or more has been made by a friend in Pennsylvania, and another friend in Virginia has endowed a scholarship in the sum of $500; and still another friend in Pittsburg has sent his check for $500. Others have contributed to the endowment in smaller sums, all of which is highly appreciated.

REV. H. L. BEAM, PRESIDENT.

The College of Northern Illinois.

THE only English institution of the Reformed Church west of Tiffin, is the property of Illinois Classis, and is located at Dakota, Illinois. Chartered in 1882, with Rev. Frank Wetzel as president, for several years a full college course was maintained; but, owing to the lack of financial support, in recent years the work has been confined to courses preparatory to the best colleges. Owing to geographical situation, the institution has not had the patronage of the church to any great degree. In order to remedy this, the authorities have decided to sell the school property as soon as possible with a view to uniting with the Synod of the Interior in a new Central Institution. While the college of Northern Illinois has had to fight for mere existence, it can point with considerable pride to the work it has done in making possible a larger and better institution for the West, as well as to its graduates, most of whom are making a mark in the world. The last two classes graduated numbered eight members each, several of whom have entered higher institutions. The presidents of the school have been: Rev. F. Wetzel, W. W. Chandler, H. B. Twitmyer, Rev. H. C. Blosser and Rev. H. L. Beam. The latter is in his second term, having served four years prior to the administration of Rev. H. C. Blosser, and is now in his ninth year of service. In order to relieve the church of further financial burden as far as possible, the present president has leased the institution, and will assume all risk for the present year.

The Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows.

The above society is the oldest charitable organization in the Reformed Church coming down to us from our German forefathers. It has for its purpose the giving of financial help to the aged or disabled ministers or perhaps his widow, if in necessitous circumstances. Its income annually from collections in the churches interest on invested fund and individual gifts is about $3,500.

In the present year the society has extended financial relief to twenty-one ministers and thirty-two widows of ministers, expending $3,275, averaging nearly sixty-two dollars to each one.

Annuitants are found in all the synods of the church—East and West, German and English. Appeal is made therefore to the whole church as all parts are receiving the benefits of the society. The society has a membership of three hundred life and fourteen annual members.

The privilege of membership in the society extends to all ministers of the Reformed Church residing in any state or territory of the United States. The terms of membership are for life members sixty-five dollars, in one or more payments, and for annual members five dollars initiation fee and three dollars annual dues.

The benefactions of the society are given only to those in need and may be given, 1. To disabled ministers, who are members; 2. To the widow of a deceased member; 3. To the widow of any deceased minister of the Reformed Church.

The officers of the society as required by the charter are Rev. Wm. M. Deatrick, D. D., President, Bedford, Pa.; Rev. J. D. Miller, Vice President, Duncannon, Pa.; Rev. T. Frank Hoffmeier, Secretary, Mt. Pleasant, Md.; Rev. Simon S. Miller, Treasurer, Myerstown, Pa.; Rev. E. R. Eschbach, D. D., Frederick, Md., Rev. H. F. Dittmar, Jefferson, Md., Adssessors.

The Mercersburg Academy.

MIN the little town of Mercersburg, Pa., in the beautiful and fertile Cumberland Valley, is situated Mercersburg Academy, which has become one of the best training schools for boys in this country. In proximity to the Blue Ridge mountains, it would be difficult to find, for a boys' school, a pleasanter or more healthful location.

Although the Mercersburg school of today may be said to be but a few years old, its history goes back sixty years, and it may well be proud of its associations.

In 1836 the High School connected with the Reformed Theological Seminary at York, Pa., was moved to Mercersburg, and incorporated as Marshall College. Two years later the seminary itself was established at Mercersburg, and the two institutions labored together until 1853, when Marshall College was moved to Lancaster, Pa., and united with Franklin College. Associated with these institutions were: Dr. John W. Nevin, the famous theologian; Dr. James Rauch, the author of the first psychology published in America; Dr. Philip Schaff, the church historian; Dr. H. H. Harbaugh, the hymn writer, and Dr. E. E. Higbee, the great educator. The seminary was also removed to Lancaster in 1871.

In 1865 a charter was granted to Mercersburg College, which was conducted as a preparatory school. Although this school did good work, it was greatly hampered by financial difficulties and failed to make much progress.

In the fall of 1893 Dr. Wm. Mann Irvine assumed the presidency of the institution, and since then Mercersburg Academy has become one of the best preparatory schools for boys in the country.

During this period of six years almost 900 students have been enrolled, of whom 160 have gone to college. $25,000 have been spent on improvements up to date, not including the $30,000 to be spent upon the dining hall which is now being erected. Forty-eight acres have been added to the academy campus, making a total of fifty-three acres in the possession, or under the control of the institution.

A wide extent of territory has been covered by the school, the students being drawn from the following states: Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, North Carolina, Florida, Utah, California, Cuba and from the District of Columbia.

In addition to its regular preparatory training, Mercersburg Academy is unsurpassed for music, oratory, debate and athletics. Its athletic field is one of the best in the state of Pennsylvania.

The academy has a reputation, second to none in the country, for preparing boys for college. The graduates of Mercersburg, who have entered colleges and universities, have, with but few exceptions, taken high rank in their classes.

The faculty is composed of fifteen members, twelve of whom are college graduates. These men live with the students and exert a helpful influence over them.

About 170 students are enrolled for the year '99-'00, and Mercersburg Academy has entered upon what will doubtless prove the most successful year in its history.

Nothing great can be accomplished without arduous exertion and a resolute purpose.

The Woman's College, Frederick, Md.

THE Woman's College of Frederick, Md., was established in 1893 by the Potomac Synod by accepting the proffer of the buildings, grounds, and equipment of the Frederick Female Seminary, (an institution built fifty years before by the expenditure of about $50,000 of contributed funds), which proffer consisted in the conveyance by long term lease of this magnificent plant at a merely nominal rental. Thus it was possible for the Woman's College to open its doors in the fall of 1893 with buildings furnished, equipped and well adapted, with a full quota of teachers, and with an enrollment of students that taxed its capacity to the utmost. The institution has made rapid strides during the six years of its history. Most favorably located in the heart of Maryland, with its unrivaled climate, and the acknowledged culture and hospitality of its people, it has drawn its students from all sections of the country, and has thrice been compelled to make increased provision for their accommodations. A year ago a third building was secured for the especial accommodation of the Music Department, and this, with changes in the internal arrangement of the original buildings, has doubled the other friends have since added several thousand dollars to the sum.

The course of study has been raised until it now fairly ranks with that of the men's and co-educational institutions of the church, and stands clearly in the lead of its woman's colleges. Its faculty now numbers fourteen regular teachers and eight instructors; the former are divided as follows: college and preparatory, eight; music, four; art, one; elocution and physical culture, one. They represent such institutions as Franklin and Marshall, Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke, Wellesley, New England Conservatory, Central College of London for Music, and Philadelphia Conservatory. The attendance during these six years has been drawn from twelve different states and has steadily increased, aggregating one hundred and seventy-five last year in all departments. Its graduates, averaging about twelve each year, are engaged in teaching, or general church work, are in homes of their own, or are making it homelike wherever they are. The leading literary society publishes a monthly journal, The Lesbian Herald. The institution is managed by a Board of five directors: Rev. E. R. Eschbach, D. D., is President; Prof. J. H. Apple, A. M., is President of the college.

capacity of the institution. A modern heating plant has been introduced, a library fitted up, a chemical laboratory equipped, a gymnasium provided for and equipped, and recently an infirmary built and furnished. In 1897 Mrs. Margaret Hood of Frederick started the endowment fund of the college by giving $20,000 in memory of her deceased husband, and Allentown College for Women.

ALLENTOWN COLLEGE for women was established in 1867 by the East Pennsylvania and Lehigh Classes of the Reformed Church in the United States, under whose auspices it is at present carried forward. It grew out of a desire to afford facilities for the higher education of young women, living not only in Allentown and vicinity, but in other parts of Pennsylvania as well as in other States of the Union. It is vested with full collegiate powers, and has gained an honorable standing among the educational institutions of our country.

At the meeting of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church at Bethlehem, in October, 1896, synod decided to purchase the college for the nominal sum of $20,000. As soon as this amount is raised the college will become the property of the Eastern Synod, and will be controlled by that body.

It is located on one of the prettiest streets in the city. Its campus is nicely shaded and very attractive. It consists of two acres of ground which furnish abundance of room for out-door exercise of every kind—lawn tennis, basket ball and other interesting games.

The building is of brick, four stories in height, from the cupola of which magnificent views in all directions may be enjoyed. A veranda nearly five hundred feet in length and eight feet broad surrounds it on every side and provides an excellent place for exercise in disagreeable weather. The building is comfortable. It is heated by steam and lighted by gas and electricity. Water, hot and cold, bathrooms, well ventilated, are on each floor. The plumbing has recently been thoroughly repaired, and, in consequence, the sanitary condition of the building is all that could be desired. Dietz Hall was erected during the scholastic year of 1895-96. It was the generous gift of Mr. Jacob Y. Dietz, of Philadelphia. It contains the gymnasium, chapel, and hall for the meeting of the two literary societies. It is handsomely furnished throughout, is lighted by electricity, and is in every respect a fine addition to the college. The college has three departments—Primary, Academic, and Collegiate.

Massanutten Academy, WOODSTOCK, VA.

MASSANUTTEN ACADEMY, which is the youngest literary institution in the Reformed Church, opened its doors for the admission of students, for the first time, September 12th, 1899.

It is located in the central part of Shenandoah Valley, in the town of Woodstock, Va., the county seat of Shenandoah county.

This school of learning is under the control of the Classis of Virginia, and is managed by fifteen trustees.

It is a high grade Academy for boys and girls, its aim being to give its pupils a full and complete academic education, equipping them for entrance into our best colleges and universities; or carefully and thoroughly preparing them for the various departments of business life. The school has an able faculty, the President of which is Rev. J. Silor Garrison, A. B.

As to its location, it is singularly fortunate. Woodstock lies in the heart of Shenandoah Valley. Its people are cultured and sociable. The climate is delightful and healthful.

As to the beauty of its natural scenery, it can scarcely be surpassed. On the east, rises in full view, the graceful form of Massanutten Mountain, from which the Academy takes its name, extending north and south, for a distance of sixty miles, through the central portion of the valley; and on the west the eye delights to linger upon the rugged, but grand North Mountain, with its numerous craggy peaks, and spurs and gaps. The landscape is truly beautiful and inspiring.

The Academy building was formerly the residence of the late United States Senator, H. H. Riddleberger. Since it came into possession of the Classis it has been enlarged by the addition of a third story, and has been otherwise improved and enlarged, making it an excellent building for school purposes.

The campus is an ideal one for students, covering several acres and well shaded with Norway maples.

The whole is admirably adapted for the purpose now used, and a more beautiful site is not to be found in the Shenandoah Valley.

Necrology.

Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States who have died during the year intervening between October 1, 1898, and October 1, 1899.

REV. HENRY H. TRAUTMAN was born December 16, 1819, in Alsace, France, and died at his home in Cleveland, Ohio, October 29, 1898, aged nearly 79 years. In his thirteenth year he came to America with his parents. After a short residence at Pittsburgh, Pa., the family located at Cleveland, Ohio. Rev. Trautman was a blacksmith by trade. He was converted under the pastorate of Rev. Kaufholz, in the First Reformed Church, Cleveland. He was licensed to preach in 1862, and ordained the following year. His first charge was at Vermillion, Ohio. Afterward he labored at Kelley's Island and other places. In 1873 he became pastor of the newly-organized Fourth Reformed Church, Cleveland. In 1881 he retired from the active ministry, but subsequently served two years as supply for the Fifth Church, Cleveland. For a number of years he has been disabled by bodily infirmities. He was married to Maria Elizabeth Bruckner, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who died three years ago. He lies buried in the Monroe Street Cemetery, Cleveland.

REV. MORITZ NOLL was born August 24, 1845, at Bergfreiheit, Waldeck, Germany, and died at his home in New Knoxville, Ohio, November 2, 1898, aged 53 years, 2 months and 11 days. He early learned the tailoring trade, and finally went to Switzerland. Here he entered St. Christopher School at Basle, and completing the course, came to America early in 1873. In November following he was examined, licensed, and ordained in Philadelphia, and at once became the pastor of a German congregation at Harrisburg, Pa. June 3, 1877, he became pastor at Bellaire, Ohio. On August 3, 1879, he took up the work at Ringersville, Ohio, and served that field thirteen years, resigning to accept an earnest call to New Knoxville. He was twice married—May 2, 1876, to Mary Fischer, who died June 11, 1878; and on January 1, 1880, he was married to Emma Zahner, who survives him. He was a great sufferer for some months before his death. He is buried at New Knoxville.

REV. M. G. I. STERN, D. D., was born in Schweinfurt, Bavaria, Germany, May 9, 1828, and died December 17, 1898, aged 70 years, 7 months and 8 days. He was educated in Würzburg and Frankfort-on-the-Main, and came to this country when nineteen years of age. He studied several years at Mercersburg, and in 1852 was licensed and ordained. His first service was as missionary at Rochester, N. Y., where he spent a year, during which time he was married to Sarah J. Stern, of Easton, Pa., who died December 15, 1876. He organized a congregation and built a church at Delaware, Ohio, serving as pastor from 1854 to 1856. Early in 1857 he became pastor of the First Reformed Church at Indianapolis, Indiana. In 1865 he organized St. John's Mission, in the same city, and was its pastor for thirty years, when he retired from active service, suffering from defective eyesight. He labored, however, as opportunity offered. He was long in the active service of the church, and one of the foremost ministers of our Reformed denomination. For twenty-six years he was an active member of the Board of Home Missions of the two Western German Synods, and for the last ten years president of that board. He was the founder of the Church Building Board of the German Synods, and also one of the founders of the Deaconess Home in Indianapolis. He is buried at Indianapolis.

REV. THOMAS LONG, one of the oldest ministers in the Reformed Church, died at Salem, N. C., December 25, 1898, aged 80 years, 1 month and 7 days. We are unable to say much of his early life. He began to preach in North Carolina during the Civil War, when there was great need of ministers. His first and only charge was that of Upper Davidson, serving the field faithfully for twenty-five years, in that time erecting two churches. He was twice married, both wives passing on before him.

He sleeps in the burial ground alongside the Hebron Church, which he erected, and in which he so long and faithfully proclaimed the gospel of salvation.

REV. JOHN M. KESSLER was born in Reading, Pa., December 19, 1855, of Swiss parentage, and he died at Allentown, Pa., January 19, 1899, aged 43 years and 1 month. He received his early education in the public schools of his native town, graduating from the High School in 1869, after which he entered Mercersburg College, graduating from there in 1873. The same year he removed with his parents to Allentown, Pa., and entered a law office, and was soon admitted to practice law in Lehigh County. He followed this profession for ten years; but feeling that he was called to the ministry, he entered the Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., and spent the year 1885-86 there. In 1886 he was ordained and became pastor of the Reformed Church at Greenville, Ohio. The following year he accepted a call to Mulberry, Indiana, where he was quite successful in his work. In the spring of 1898 he accepted a call to St. John's Church at Bangor, Pa., but in August of the same year was compelled to relinquish work because of impaired health. He sought medical aid, but to no avail. He was married to Emma Ruhl, of Allentown, Pa., May 10, 1883, and she survives him. His last days were spent at Allentown, and he is buried in the Union Cemetery of that place.

REV. JOHN RETTIG, well and favorably known in our Reformed Zion, was born in Baden, Germany, in 1830, and died suddenly on February 15, 1899, at his residence in Fort Wayne, Indiana, aged 69 years. His death was due to his taking, by mistake, carbolic acid. Brother Rettig came to America with his parents in 1843, and located in eastern Ohio. Early in life he decided to study for the ministry. In 1849 he was licensed and ordained by St. John's Classis, and became pastor of the charge at New Philadelphia, Ohio. He spent altogether forty years in the pastoral work, serving successively at Crestline and Gallion, Ohio; Wheatland, Iowa; Auburn and Indianapolis, Indiana. October 3, 1883, he assumed his last great work—that of superintendent of the newly founded Orphan Home at Ft. Wayne, Indiana. The remarkable growth of this institution of our church is due to his executive ability and strong personality. He gave the best of his life for the cause of the orphan. He was married on May 25, 1850, to Anna M. Schmeidel, who with eight children survived him. Mrs. Rettig, who had been in poor health for some years died on April 22d, following, aged 68 years, 2 months and 28 days. Rev. Rettig was the father of Revs. L. C. and John H. Rettig. He is buried in Ft. Wayne.

REV. L. P. NERGER was born in Mecklinburg-Schwerin, Germany, where his aged parents still reside, and died in New York City, February 19, 1899, aged 38 years and 6 months. He received his education at Berlin, Rostock and Leipzig. He came to New York City, and from 1886 to 1890 was assistant secretary of the German Y. M. C. A. From 1890 to 1895 he served as General Secretary of the German Y. M. C. A. in Philadelphia, resigning to enter Union Theological Seminary at New York, to complete his studies for the ministry. In the spring of 1896 he was licensed by the German Philadelphia Classis, and later became the pastor of Zion's congregation at Baltimore, Md., and was ordained on August 9, 1896. He served this congregation until his death.

REV. F. J. EMIL MUEHLE was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on January 11, 1865, and died at Lancaster, Pa., February 19, 1899, aged nearly thirty-five years. In early life he was compelled to launch out for himself. When about eighteen years of age he went to Baltimore, Md., and soon became a member of the Sunday-school of the Third Reformed Church, and on January 9, 1885, became a member of that church. He felt called to the ministry, and with great sacrifices he took a course in Mercersburg College and a theological course in the Eastern Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., graduating in 1895. On June 1st of the same year he became pastor at McKeesport, Pa., where he served but a year, being compelled, because of ill-health, to seek a change of climate. He spent several years in North Carolina, Denver, Colorado, and Cincinnati, Ohio, and finally went to Lancaster, without finding any permanent relief. Here death soon took him. He lies in the cemetery at Baltimore, Md., his former home. A wife and four children survive him.

REV. JESSE CECIL died on March 5, 1899. He was received into the Classis of North Carolina, from the Methodist Church, in 1862, and shortly after was ordained and installed pastor of the West Rowan Charge. He also labored some time at Concord, and afterward removed to Thomasville, where he continued to reside until his death. In the meantime he frequently preached at Moffit's Grove. A few years ago Calvary Church was organized at that place. He also supplied the Lower Davidson Charge for several years. Though deprived of the advantages of a seminary training, by diligent application he gathered an abundant fund of theological learning. He took great interest in the public schools, being for some time county superintendent. He is buried in Pine Woods Cemetery, Thomasville.

REV. WILLIAM GOODRICH was born January 6, 1826, at New Hagerstown, Ohio, and died at Clearspring, Md., May 6, 1899, aged 73 years and 4 months. In his early life he taught public school, and then entered Marshall College with the ministry in view. He graduated from the college in 1851, and a few years later from the Seminary. After being licensed and ordained, he engaged in missionary work in and about Columbia, Pa. From there he went to New Providence, Pa., where he remained two years, when he accepted a call to the Bloomsburg Charge, and served this large field for nearly twelve years. On November 25, 1865, he, with his family, removed to Clearspring, Md., where he took up pastoral work. He revived the work in this field, built a church at Clearspring and one at St. Paul's. Here he served heroically and faithfully until his death—over thirty-three years. He was a meek and pious man, much beloved by his people. He frequently represented Maryland Classis upon the floor of the district and general synods. He was married on September 14, 1852, to Caroline Elizabeth Straub, who with seven children survives him.

REV. D. K. FULCASON was born in Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, June 14, 1844, and died at Warren, Ohio, June 5, 1899, aged 54 years, 11 months and 21 days. He was an orphan at the age of four years, living with relatives. Early he began to educate himself, and an aunt was very helpful to him. He taught school for nine years, being only fourteen years old when teaching his first term. Two years and nine months he was a teacher in the Orphan Home at Butler, Pa. He received his college education at Mt. Pleasant College and his theological training from Rev. Dr. Jeremiah Good, reciting to him privately. At a meeting of the Ohio Syhad at Shelbyville, Illinois, in the spring of 1873, he was ordained and at once began missionary work in Shelby County, Illinois. Here he experienced many difficulties and deep trials, as the field was then in its pioneer days. On one of his trips he was thrown from his horse and compelled, because of the injury sustained, to give up pastoral work. He also suffered several strokes of paralysis. Feeling a special call, however, he arose from a sick bed and went to Lone Tree, Iowa, where he was active in the ministry for six years. Afterward he labored at Orangeville, Illinois, North Hampton, Ohio, and the Leavittsburg Charge, Ohio, where he resigned in December, 1898. In January, 1899, he was attacked with lagrippe, from which time until his death he was a great sufferer. He lies buried in beautiful Oakwood Cemetery, at Warren, Ohio.

REV. DEXTER B. ANDERSON was born in Pierpont, N. Y., September 21, 1827, and died June 17, 1899, in Marshalltown, Iowa, aged 71 years, 8 months and 24 days. In his youth he attended the public schools and afterward was a student at Canton and Pottsdam in New York State. He taught school for several years in his native state and also after he came west, and then entered college at Beloit, Wis. He was ordained to the ministry in 1859, at Frankford, Minn., and for a number of years labored in the Baptist Church. Of late years he has been a member of the Reformed Church, doing some ministerial service, but because of advancing age and failing strength, retired. He died while on a visit to the Soldiers' Home at Marshalltown, but the funeral service and burial took place from his home in Lisbon, Iowa.

REV. WILLIAM M. LANDIS died July 19, 1899, at Rebersburg, Pa., aged 63 years. He entered the ministry in 1864, after such preparation as he was able to make.

His first charge was at Harmony, Pa., which had been reduced to a mission. He labored here with much zeal for over five years. He was the pastor, organist, and superintendent of the Sunday-school. When he left the charge it had again become self-supporting. In 1871 he was sent as a missionary to Lykens, Pa. After a year of hard work he organized a congregation of sixty members and erected a church building and parsonage. In 1872 he became pastor of the Rebersburg Charge—five congregations—where he labored eleven years. During his pastorate here he erected three new churches, a parsonage, and repaired two churches, and when his pastorate closed there was no debt on any of the church property. In 1883 he took charge of the Beaver Springs pastorate of five congregations. The charge was scattered, and matters not in good condition. Here also he did a good work, building three churches, a parsonage, and repaired two churches. He labored in this field fifteen years, resigning in the latter part of 1898. He removed to Allentown, and later to Altoona. He was a pastor for thirty-three years. He is buried at Rebersburg, and leaves a wife, two sons, and one daughter.

Order Church and S. S. Supplies, Books, Bibles, Etc., direct from us and so help to build up the publication interests of the Reformed Church. The Christian World Co., is simply the Board of Publication of the Ohio Synod, incorporated. The profits on the business we handle do not enrich any individual, but go into the treasury of the church as they should have fifty years ago. Let us stand by our own denomination.

THE CHRISTIAN WORLD CO., Dayton, Ohio.

"As we travel about from place to place in Evangelistic work, we have been obliged to use almost every known make of Reed Organ, but we have never used an instrument that has afforded us so much pleasure and satisfaction as The Weaver Organ.

It is light in action and responds instantly to the touch and for quality of tone it is unsurpassed."

You won't know it's Winter

IF YOU USE THE STANDARD BOILERS OR FURNACES.

There was a time when winter was feared: a time of cold houses, cold floors, and colds and chills. Where improper apparatus is used the same state of affairs exists, but where efficient heaters are known and used, winter is as delightful as summer. For the purpose of introducing our Furnaces and Boilers where they are not known we will sell at WHOLESALE price one Furnace or Boiler to the persons first ordering from their town, and will DONATE 25 PER CENT. of the net price as a premium on first order. This will save the buyer $25.00 TO $100.00 according to size bought. This is a bona-fide offer. Our CATALOG giving full details of our heaters, is furnished FREE, and a net price on heaters will be given, delivered at any station in the United States. Our Furnaces and Boilers are high-grade heaters; have been made for the past 14 years; thousands are in use and they are specified by the leading architects and heating engineers throughout the country. State whether Boiler or Furnace is wanted. Our booklet shows the experience of those who have accepted this offer.
